I have worked for Island Catholic Schools (ICS) for thirty years.

Reflecting on my years in ICS, I'm filled with gratitude. It is my responsibility to teach our wonderful students about God's beautiful creation; to explain how generators work, how the blue color of the sky is formed and how we are able to calculate the mass of the earth. But as thrilling as that is, it is also being part of the community of staff, students, parents, priests and sisters that fills me with joy every day! – Tanya Taft, SARHS
